ANTICIPATE GREATEST CONVENTION IN HISTORY

Charleroi to be Mecca for Sunday School Workers Next Week

CONCERT FIRST EVENT

Monster Chorus to Give Recital Under Direction of Prof. I. T. Daniel

Charleroi will be the mecca of Sunday School and religious workers from all over Washington county next week when the Seventeenth Annual county Sunday School convention will be held. Many hundred visitors will be here as delegates to the convention, which it is expected by county officers will be the largest and best in the county's history, and in addition to this number there will be hundreds of others who will be irresistibly drawn here by the big event.

Final preparations are now being made by the county executive cabinet and the Charleroi district executive cabinet for the affair. The largest meetings of the convention will be held in a big convention tent that will be pitched on the grounds owned by the government at the corner of Seventh street and Fallowfield avenue. This tent will cover the greatest part of the six lots there. It has just arrived from Chicago, and likely the work of erecting it will be started this week.

Rev. Murray C. Reiter, of Canonsburg President of the Washington County Sunday School Association

The first event of note in connection with the convention will be a concert and recital to be given by the Charleroi Choral Society Wednesday evening, June 19. This will be truly one of the features of convention week. Prof. I. T. Daniel, supervisor of music in the Charleroi public schools will direct this concert. Excellent chorus numbers are being prepared. The heaviest chorus selection will be the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's Messiah. Other chorus numbers will be "Praise Ye The Father," by Gounod, "The Song of the Triton," and "Old Black Joe," the latter being a tuneful and beautiful arrangement of Stephen Fos-

Voting on Bond Issue

North Charleroi Electors Deciding Today on $14,000 Proposal

North Charleroi voters are today deciding whether or not the borough will be bonded to the extent of $14,000 for the purpose of paying off a floating indebtedness and providing a fund for the purpose of borough improvement. It is believed the sentiment will be sufficiently favorable that the proposal will carry. It is intended in that event that $10,000 of the amount be used to pay off the floating indebtedness and the balance, $4,000, be used for street improvements.

SUNDAY SHINES TABOOED

Monessen Assumes Virtuous Attitude on Tender Subject

BURGESS ISSUES EDICT

Whether to be in fashion in the science of creating sensations or whether influenced by the Billy Sunday meetings being held somewhere up in Beaver county or whether just as a local notion is something not ascertained, but Monessen has taken a turn at being virtuous. Its virtue consists in its being the shoe shine parlors closed down after 10 o'clock each Sunday morning. Such a wonderful reform, it is authoritatively stated, has created a big stir.

It is understood that previous to this there has never been any attempt made to enforce the Blue Laws or their first cousin, Burgess Reamer came to the conclusion last week after various hints had been centered at him that it might be a good idea to have a trial of a new scheme that would figure in reality as a relative of the Blue Laws. His order to close the shoe shine shops Sundays followed. Consequently late risers had to do without their customary Sunday polishing or play shine themselves.

It is claimed by some that Monessen is still a place where such a thing as Sunday observance in the religious sense has become a lost art. In another sense Sunday observance has become a science. Indicating this

RIBARIK BRAVELY MEETS HIS DOOM

Canonsburg Murderer Stolid Up Until Moment of His Hanging at Washington--Arose Early, Eating No Breakfast

His nerve never breaking and his apparent unconcern showing to the end, Jan Ribarik, the Canonsburg murderer of two men and one woman met his doom this morning shortly after 10 o'clock when he was hanged in the county jail at Washington. He was pronounced dead in 19 minutes by the physicians in attendance, after the trap was sprung. Apparently his neck was not broken.

Ribarik arose at 5 o'clock this morning and dressed. He ate no breakfast. At 9 o'clock his daughter came to bid him farewell. This was the daughter upon whom he had previously blamed all his trouble, but who was lately forgiven by Ribarik. The door of his cell was opened a trifle more than usual to allow him an opportunity to say his last farewells. He made a demonstration as if to strike her. The door was quickly closed and the interview terminated. Ribarik was accompanied to the scaffold by his chosen spiritual advisor.

He had Monday night made his selection of a Catholic priest, stating that as he had been reared in that faith he would die in it.

In a clear voice Ribarik responded to the questions put to him just a moment before the execution. Then the black mask was pulled over his face, and the trap sprung at 10:05 1/2 o'clock. The ceremony was in itself simple, characterized mainly by the stolidness of the murderer himself, who seemed actually less affected than the few witnesses and attendants who grouped about.

After the man had been pronounced dead by the attending physicians, the daughter of the man took charge of the body, and had it removed to Canonsburg where burial will take place.

Ribarik's hanging was the first that has taken place in the Washington jail since that of Elmer Deems, the young negro some years ago, for killing a family of three.

VERY FEW HOUSES NOW TO BE RENTED

Hard to Find Vacant Homes in Charleroi--Rather Remarkable Considering State of Industrial Affairs

One of the anomalies of Charleroi is that at the present time there are practically no vacant houses for rent; that is, what is known as good houses. Every desirable house is taken, and about the only available domicile is what is known as the "shack" variety, and even these are not plentiful at all times. This condition, at a time when the Pittsburgh Plate Glass factory has been idle for a year as well as the Charleroi Coal Works, at which about 1,000 people were formerly employed, is somewhat remarkable.

The chief cause for this condition, according to local real estate men, is that Charleroi is a desirable residence town. While many moved away when the Plate Glass factory shut down, many more moved in, particularly from Monessen. The big steel interests has filled up that town to such an extent that street car service is necessary in many cases to reach desirable residence districts by those employed at the mills there, and many of these now live in Charleroi. This town is also the residence place of a number of citizens who travel. The demand for residences for outside people is increasing, and more good houses could be rented right along if they were available.

Charleroi has good schools and churches, and is a clean and well governed town. It is the most desirable residence town in the whole valley, and it is now the recognized headquarters for those who work up and down the valley in an industrial and commercial capacity. Scarcely a day passes that there is not an inquiry for desirable houses for rent, as well as flats and rooms for light housekeeping.

COMES TO DEFENSE OF HIS ANCESTRY

Edward Callaghan Makes Speech and Reads Letters From Secretary of War

IS AFTER DETRACTORS

In order to refute a charge reflecting upon the Irish race that arose in his canvass as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency of the United States, Hon. Edward Callaghan made an address Monday evening at the corner of Fifth street and Fallowfield avenue. The charge had been made that out of 144,000 enlistments of Irish in the United States army during the civil war there were 104,000 desertions. These figures were purported to have been taken from the reports of the war department at Washington. Mailing the memorandum to the war department Mr. Callaghan sent a letter of explanation, and asked if the charges could be verified. Expressing his disbelief that the charges were true, Mr. Callaghan said, in his letter to Secretary of War Dickinson:

"If the enclosed figures are correct

MINERS TO HOLD PICNIC AT ELDORA

Decision is Reached at Meeting of Delegates of Sub-District

OPPOSE HALAPY'S PLAN

A meeting of the central local union of sub-district No. 3 of the Mine Workers of the Pittsburgh district was held at Monongahela Monday evening at which a motion was passed to hold the annual picnic of the miners of the sub-district at Eldora Park. The date will probably be some time in August, to suit the convenience of International President White, who is expected to be present.

A project, fathered by Michael Halapy, who is contesting the election of President Francis Feehan of the Pittsburgh district, and Armand Palczara for the miners to take stock in a weekly paper to be started in Pittsburgh devoted to the miners' interests was disapproved by the central union. The miners already have an organ at Indianapolis, as well as the support of a labor paper already established in Pittsburgh.

Wilson The Man Killed

Identification is Made of Stranger Found Dead on Tracks at Fayette City

The mangled body of the man found on the railroad track near the Fayette City coal tippie at Fayette City Sunday has been identified as the body of John Clarence Wilson, of Newell. It is said that Wilson had left home Sunday, his family not knowing where he had gone. After hearing of the finding of a man's body at Fayette City, one of the sons went to that place late Monday and identified the man as his father. The widow and six children survive.

ASSUMES CONTROL OF ROADS

State Department Notifies County Commissioners of Change

PLANS ARE ANNOUNCED

County Commissioners Thomas Hill, John A. Berry and A. P. Barnum, Saturday received a letter from E. A. Jones, a deputy in the State Highway department at Harrisburg, officially notifying them that since June 1, the state through that department had assumed control and full charge of the sections of certain named and numbered routes of which certain roads in Washington county are a part. These are the state highways designated in the general highway bill upon which the $50,000,000 will be spent during the next few years under the direction of the department of which E. M. Bigelow is the head. The only exceptions are county roads, sections of routes extending through boroughs and roads owned or controlled by toll-road corporations or other private corporations.

The state in the Sprout road act has numbered these roads and they will be found enumerated below. The supervisor for the care and maintenance of these roads recently appointed, is Ner O. Brownlee of Buffalo township, who has already taken up his work. Supervisor Brownlee who enters upon his work with years of experience back of him as a road man will have the general supervision of all these roads in Washington county; that is, have the care and maintenance of them. Mr. Brownlee will have nothing to do with new work, only the looking after of those roads already constructed. There is one exception and that is the National pike. At the present time this road in this county

Bids for Charleroi Government Edifice to be Announced Saturday

CHICAGO MAN BIDDER

Prominent Contractor Inspects Site--Foundation Easy to Build

That the latter part of June will witness the beginning of actual construction work on the new Charleroi Federal Building and postoffice at the corner of Seventh street and Fallowfield avenue, is the confident prediction of those here in closest touch with the situation. Bids were opened May 31, and the result will be announced it is said on June 15, which is Saturday of this week. Thereafter it is stated it will take but a few days for the contractor, whoever he may be, to get the work in shape. Probably June 27 would be a good guess on which work will be started.

It is stated that the Supervising Architect of the Treasury Department and his assistants have everything in readiness for building work to start. What may tend to hold up the matter however is the reported resignation of the Supervising Architect.

A few days ago there was a Chicago man here, who was a bidder on the work. He inspected the site and said it was his understanding that excavating was to start just as soon as possible after announcement was made of the bids. This contractor stated that a fill of some extent would be necessary. Inasmuch as the building is to contain two stories and a basement, it would seem the structure will stand considerably above the level of the street.

The Chicago contractor while here took occasion to see local specialty men such as plumbers, gas fitters, heating plant men and various others, so that in the event he got the contract he could get things under way at once. He said that he had a postoffice contract in another city that was being held up temporarily until an additional appropriation could be put through the foundation having proved more costly than anticipated. The Chicago man was of the opinion that the Charleroi excavating and foundation work would present no serious difficulties.

On June 20 and 21, according to present arrangements the government site will be used by the Washington County Sunday School Association for their convention, a large tent to be pitched there. The ground will have to be leveled off. The instructions are to the committees that they remove their tent within a very few days after the convention is over.

Notice.

Sealed bids for the furnishing of Paper Goods and other general supplies for Charleroi Public Schools will be received by the Secretary, J. M. Hill until Tuesday evening, July 2 at 6 o'clock. Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids. List of supplies can be had from the Secretary.

CHRISTIAN CITIZENSHIP.

The interest, manifested in the approaching county Sunday school convention, which is to be held in Charleroi next week, shows the magnitude and zeal of Sunday school work throughout the country. This awakening, particularly among the men, is a demonstration of the great growth of Christian citizenship that is causing such a revival of the Democratic spirit in every state in the union. Men are realizing for the first time their individual responsibility of citizenship, and that merely to profess the precepts of Christianity is not sufficient for working out the destiny and salvation of man. They must live up to these precepts and work for their influence in every phase of life.

For the first time, perhaps, leaders in social reform are realizing that the best means for attaining Christian citizenship is not to try to induce men to vote and work in a certain way, but extra efforts are being put forth to induce men to go to the polls and vote. Party affiliation cuts little figure provided every elector casts his ballot for the candidate of his choice.
The great majority of voters are men of morality and good impulses, and so long as all vote there is little danger of getting bad men in office. The danger is that line heretofore has been that many men did not vote at all, and a minority with special interest to serve has always been able to elect their candidates and control the government.

Now a new tack has been made.
Churches and civic bodies are lining their voters up and urging them to attend the suggestion meetings and caucuses, and to vote at the primaries and general election. No matter how or for whom they vote, the great and burning question is to take a hand in the elections and vote. If a voter is imbued with the true spirit of citizenship as the majority of them are,
he will select the best men of his party as the candidates of his choice.
When this is done there is no need to fear.

Indifference has heretofore been the cause of all the political corruption and misgovernment.

LABOR AND LIVING.

Coal cutting machines and coke drawing and loading machines are supplanting labor at the coke works, and steam shovels and steam rollers are doing the work of many men in building railroads and public highways, says the Connellsville Courier.
Time was when these would have been denounced as inventions of the devil, created for the purpose of taking the bread out of the mouths of the workingmen. In those days there was always more men than jobs; now there is more employment than labor.
Then the laboring man received low wages and enjoyed few comforts;
now he gets good wages and regards as necessities what were a short time since luxuries.

This is his fortune, not his fault.
He is enjoying the general uplift in living conditions, which we hear violently denounced every now and then as the high cost of living.

This complaint is, however, not without reason. The conditions conspire to make high prices, but dealers frequently and arbitrarily raise prices to extortionate altitudes. These extortions are popularly blamed on the various Food Trusts, and perhaps with reason, but it remains a fact that extortion is practiced all the way down the line to the retail dealers.
It was recently discovered that Pittsburg retail dealers in green goods were exceeding the tariff limit and the wholesalers for a time published their prices to show just how and where the public was being pinched.

It speaks much for the progress of our country that despite the introduction of labor-saving devices of every description the wages of labor have steadily increased and the home comforts and advantages have constantly multiplied. That is the way it should be. Steady prosperity is a blessing the avarice that prompts extortion is a curse.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Sometimes one is tempted to wonder if conventions don't tend to add to the high cost of living.

Bryan admits that Roosevelt sees what he did, but claims priority of claim, which is just like W. J.

A real reformer is an umpire who is willing to turn a new leaf and manage a ball club.

The way to make sure of happy memories is to marry them.

It usually happens that when a man buys a new hat his friends are as ready to tell him how to wear it as though it were a gold medal.

Ed. Howe, the Atchison, Kan., philosopher suggests that everything ought to be settled as effectually as supremacy in baseball. Imagine Taft and Roosevelt playing it off.

So far as can be learned Congress has accomplished this year the arduous task of investigating Lorimer, listening to Lorimer's speech, seeing to it that Lorimer's and hundreds of other speeches on Lorimer were put into the Congressional Record and reporting Lorimer's case satisfactory to him. As a matter of rest some of them prepared a bill or two to spend their spare time fighting it over.

It was never known until the other day why the cost of milk was so high.
Roosevelt is consuming such quantities of it that the supply is becoming limited.

Men with the worst memories, while debtors have the best memories as creditors.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

A woman who was a recent visitor in Charleroi told how the young son of a friend qualified at boarding school. Jimmie which was the lad's name, was most popular at home, but his first week at school found him too homesick to make friends.

"I'm way behind the other boys in everything," he wrote dolefully.
"Tisn't only studies, but it's gymnasium and banjos and everything.
I don't believe they'll ever have much
use for me."

But the second letter, written after a week in the new school, was quite different in tone.

"I'm all right," he wrote to his mother. "The boys say they'll teach me all they know, for they're proud to have me here. I can stretch my mouth half an inch wider than any other boy in school, and my feet are the longest by a full inch. So you needn't worry about me any more."

"These advertisements of midsummer bargains that are beginning to appear in the papers reminds me of George Lusmden, a former pioneer shoe dealer of Charleroi, who used to have some most original terms and expressions," said a Charleroi business man. "Passing Lusmden's shoe store one day, where he was standing in the doorway, surrounded by
'bargain' trays of marked down shoes
I asked:

"How's business, George?"

"Good!" he exclaimed. "I got rid of a pair of 'old crabs' today."

"Old crabs?" I asked. What are they?"

"Old stock—the 9's, 10's and 11's of the styles of year before last and the year before that and farther back," he replied.

"But why do you call them crabs?"

"Oh, because they're such slow moving stuff."

ter's divine melody. A women's chorus number, "May Morning," by Denzi, and a male chorus number "Absence," by Dudley Buck will constitute a portion of the program. One of the finer numbers, it is expected though will be the noted Sextet from Lucia. Nearly everyone is familiar with this exquisite bit of melody and harmony, and many have heard it rendered by grand opera singers. Readings will fill out the program.

The two convention days, June 20 and 21, will be packed full of good things for Sunday School people. It is doubtful if all the delegates themselves will be on hand and registered on the first morning of the convention until the program is well under way. The first event that will attract public attention will be a children's parade on Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock.

Conferences will constitute the feature of the two days' session. All the various departments of Sunday School work as carried on by the county will have conferences and at least two will have banquets.

BAPTISTS EASY FOR METHODISTS

Church League Game Ends
With Score 8 to 1--Pollock
Pitches Well

Great bucketsful of cold water were dashed on the Baptist hopes in a five inning engagement Monday evening. Pollock pitched for the splashes and as evidence that he did a good job of it the fact is that the Lindsay pets only gleaned four scattered safeties. Scheiler was box occupant for the all water delegation. The Methodists touched him right lively and made their hits count. As a result they edged a trifle nearer the lead in the pennant procession, while the Baptists walked backward.

HADES SHOWN AT ITS WORST

Old Fashioned Kind Shown in Moving Pictures of
Dante's Inferno

Hell, the old-fashioned kind--where the worm dieth not and the fire is not quenched--such as our grandfathers used to believe in, and the kind that Billy Sunday preaches, was most vividly shown at the Coyle Theatre yesterday afternoon and evening in the great motion picture films of "Dante's Inferno," which opened a three day's engagement. This wonderful masterpiece of the film maker's art pictures Dante's immortal poem is realistic, breathing effects, and shows Dante and Virgil on their journey through the infernal regions. The nine great circles of hell are depicted in all their hideousness, where the different degrees of sin are classified and punished in accordance with their heinousness.

Beginning with the untapped, whose sin is something like Rudyard Kipling's man Tomlinson, who was not good enough to go to heaven, nor bad enough to go to hell, and whose punishment consists in basking under green trees outside of both paradise and limbo, the various circles of the infernal regions are unfolded to the travelers--Virgil and Dante--who are accorded a safe conduct throughout the infernal regions. After they are ferried across the river Styx by Charon, the grim boatman, the travelers view the tortures of the lost souls in all their different stages of the nine circles. The blasphemers, the lustful, the dissolute, the misers and spendthrifts, the murderers, the usurers, the simonists, all get the measure of punishment commensurate with their sin in pits of flame, lakes of fire, rivers of filth, or are the prey of monsters, or with endless impossible tasks to perform. All is not hell-fire either. Some are packed in ice, and the frigid degree is imposed as well as the torrid one.

The films are a living personification of the work of the great artist Gustave Dore, whose pictures of Dante's Inferno have long been one of the art classics of the ages. The films are in five reels and the lecture that accompanies the presentation gives a most comprehensive understanding of the great masterpiece. They will be presented again this afternoon and evening, as well as tomorrow.

ANTICIPATE GREATEST CONVENTION IN HISTORY

Charleroi to be Mecca for Sunday School Workers Next Week

Monster Chorus to Give Recital Under Direction of Prof. I. T. Daniel

Charleroi will be the mecca of Sunday School and religious workers from all over Washington county next week when the Seventeenth Annual county Sunday School convention will be held. Many hundreds of visitors will be here as delegates to the convention, which it is expected by county officers will be the largest and best in the county's history, and in addition to this number there will be hundreds of others who will be irresistibly drawn here by the big event.

Final preparations are now being made by the county executive cabinet and the Charleroi district executives.

Rev. Murray C. Reiter, of Canonsburg, President of the Washington County Sunday School Association

Five cabinet for the affair. The largest meetings of the convention will be held in a big convention tent that will be pitched on the grounds owned by the government at the corner of Seventh street and Fallowfield avenue. This tent will cover the greatest part of the six lots there. It has just arrived from Chicago, and likely the work of erecting it will be started this week.

The first event of note in connection with the convention will be a concert and recital to be given by the Charleroi Choral Society Wednesday evening, June 19. This will be truly one of the features of convention week. Prof. I. T. Daniel, supervisor of music in the Charleroi public schools will direct this concert. Excellent chorus numbers are being prepared. The heaviest chorus selection will be the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's Messiah. Other chorus numbers will be "Praise Ye The Father," by Gounod, "The Song of the Triton," and "Old Black Joe," the latter being a tuneful and beautiful arrangement of Stephen Foster.

Voting on Bond Issue

North Charleroi Electors Deciding Today on $14,000 Proposal

North Charleroi voters are today deciding whether or not the borough will be bonded to the extent of $14,000 for the purpose of paying off a floating indebtedness and providing a fund for the purpose of borough improvement. It is believed the sentiment will be sufficiently favorable that the proposal will carry. It is intended in that event that $10,000 of the amount be used to pay off the floating indebtedness and the balance, $4,000, be used for street improvements.

SUNDAY SHINES TABOOED

Whether to be in fashion in the science of creating sensations or whether influenced by the Billy Sunday meetings being held somewhere up in Beaver county or whether just as a local notion is something not ascertained, but Monessen has taken a turn at being virtuous. Its virtue consists in its being in having the shoe shine parlors closed down after 10 o'clock each Sunday morning. Such a wonderful reform, it is authoritatively stated, has created a big stir.

It is understood that previous to this there has never been any attempt made to enforce the Blue Laws or their first cousin. Burgess Reamer came to the conclusion last week after various hints had been centered at him that it might be a good idea to have a trial of a new scheme that would figure in reality as a relative of the Blue Laws. His order to close the shoe shine shops Sunday followed. Consequently late risers had to do without their customary Sunday polishing or play shine themselves.

It is claimed by some that Monessen is still a place where such a thing as Sunday observance in the religious sense has become a lost art. In another sense Sunday observance has become a science. Indicating this

RIBARIK BRAVELY MEETS HIS DOOM

His nerve never breaking and his apparent unconcern showing to the end, Jan Ribarik, the Canonsburg murderer of two men and one woman met his doom this morning shortly after 10 o'clock when he was hanged in the county jail at Washington. He was pronounced dead in 19 minutes by the physicians in attendance, after the trap was sprung. Apparently his neck was not broken.

Ribarik arose at 5 o'clock this morning and dressed. He ate no breakfast. At 9 o'clock his daughter came to bid him farewell. This was the daughter upon whom he had previously blamed all his trouble, but who was lately forgiven by Ribarik. The door of his cell was opened a trifle more than usual to allow him an opportunity to say his last farewells. He made a demonstration as if to strike her. The door was quickly closed and the interview terminated.

Ribarik was accompanied to the scaffold by his chosen spiritual advisor, for killing a family of three.

VERY FEW HOUSES NOW TO BE RENTED

One of the anomalies of Charleroi is that at the present time there are practically no vacant houses for rent; that is, what is known as good houses. Every desirable house is taken, and about the only available domicile is what is known as the "shack" variety, and even these are not plentiful at all times. This condition, at a time when the Pittsburgh Plate Glass factory has been idle for a year as well as the Charleroi Coal Works, at which about 1,000 people were formerly employed, is somewhat remarkable.

The chief cause for this condition, according to local real estate men, is that Charleroi is a desirable residence town. While many moved away when the Plate Glass factory shut down, many more moved in, particularly from Monessen. The big steel interests has filled up that town to such an extent that street car service is necessary in many cases to reach desirable residence districts by those employed at the mills there, and many of these now live in Charleroi. This town is also the residence place of a number of citizens who travel. The demand for residences for outside people is increasing, and more good houses could be rented right along if they were available.

Charleroi has good schools and churches, and is a clean and well governed town. It is the most desirable residence town in the whole valley, and it is now the recognized headquarters for those who work up and down the valley in an industrial and commercial capacity. Scarcely a day passes that there is not an inquiry for desirable houses for rent, as well as flats and rooms for light housekeeping.

COMES TO DEFENSE OF HIS ANCESTRY

Edward Callaghan Makes Speech and Reads Letters From Secretary of War

IS AFTER DETRACTORS

In order to refute a charge reflecting upon the Irish race that arose in his canvass as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency of the United States, Hon. Edward Callaghan made an address Monday evening at the corner of Fifth street and Fallowfield avenue. The charge had been made that out of 144,000 enlistments of Irish in the United States army during the civil war there were 104,000 desertions. These figures were purported to have been taken from the reports of the war department at Washington.

Mailing the memorandum to the war department Mr. Callaghan sent a letter of explanation, and asked if the charges could be verified. Expressing his disbelief that the charges were true, Mr. Callaghan said, in his letter to Secretary of War Dickinson:

"If the enclosed figures are correct

The mangled body of the man found on the railroad track near the Fayette City coal apple at Fayette City Sunday has been identified as the body of John Clarence Wilson, of Newell. After hearing of the finding of a man's body at Fayette City, one of the sons went to that place late Monday and identified the man as his father. The widow and six children survive.

ASSUMES CONTROL OF ROADS

State Department Notifies County Commissioners of Change

County Commissioners Thomas Hill, John A. Berry and A. P. Barnum, Saturday received a letter from E. A. Jones, a deputy in the State Highway department at Harrisburg, officially notifying them that since June 1, the state through that department had assumed control and full charge of the sections of certain named and numbered routes of which certain roads in Washington county are a part. These are the state highways designated in the general highway bill upon which the $50,000,000 will be spent during the next few years under the direction of the department of which E. M. Bigelow is the head. The only exceptions are county roads, sections of routes extending through boroughs and roads owned or controlled by toll-road corporations or other private corporations.

The state in the Sprout road act has numbered these roads and they will be found enumerated below. The supervisor for the care and maintenance of these roads recently appointed, is Ner O. Brownlee of Buffalo township, who has already taken up his work. Supervisor Brownlee who enters upon his work with years of experience back of him as a road man will have the general supervision of all these roads in Washington county, that is, have the care and maintenance of them. Mr. Brownlee will have nothing to do with new work, only the looking after of those roads already constructed. There is one exception and that is the National pike. At the present time this road in this county

CHICAGO MAN BIDDING

Prominent Contractor Inspects Site--Foundation Easy to Build

That the latter part of June will witness the beginning of actual construction work on the new Charleroi Federal Building and postoffice at the corner of Seventh street and Fallowfield avenue, is the confident prediction of those here in closest touch with the situation. Bids were opened May 31, and the result will be announced it is said on June 15, which is Saturday of this week. Thereafter it is stated it will take but a few days for the contractor, whoever he may be, to get the work in shape. Probably June 27 would be a good guess on which work will be started.

It is stated that the Supervising Architect of the Treasury Department and his assistants have everything in readiness for building work to start. What may tend to hold up the matter however is the reported resignation of the Supervising Architect.

A few days ago there was a Chicago man here, who was a bidder on the work. He inspected the site and said it was his understanding that excavating was to start just as soon as possible after announcement was made of the bids. This contractor stated that a fill of some extent would be necessary. Inasmuch as the building is to contain two stories and a basement, it would seem the structure will stand considerably above the level of the street.

The Chicago contractor while here took occasion to see local specialty men, such as plumbers, gas fitters, heating plant men and various others, so that in the event he got the contract he could get things under way at once. He said that he had a postoffice contract in another city that was being held up temporarily until an additional appropriation could be put through the foundation having proved more costly than anticipated. The Chicago man was of the opinion that the Charleroi excavating and foundation work would present no serious difficulties.

On June 20 and 21, according to present arrangements the government site will be used by the Washington County Sunday School Association for their convention, a large tent to be pitched there. The ground will have to be leveled off. The instructions are to the committees that they remove their tent within a very few days after the convention is over.

Notice.

Sealed bids for the furnishing of Paper Goods and other general supplies for Charleroi Public Schools, will be received by the Secretary, J. M. Hill until Tuesday evening, July 2 at 6 o'clock. Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids. List of supplies can be had from the Secretary.

CHRISTIAN CITIZENSHIP.

The interest manifested in the approaching county Sunday school convention, which is to be held in Charleroi next week, shows the magnitude and zeal of Sunday school work
throughout the country. This awakening, particularly among the men,
is a demonstration of the great
growth of Christian citizenship that is causing such a revival of the Democratic spirit in every state in the union. Men are realizing for the first time their individual responsibility
of citizenship, and that merely to profess the precepts of Christianity
is not sufficient for working out the destiny and salvation of man. They must live up to these precepts and
work for their influence in every phase of life.

For the first time, perhaps, leaders
in social reform are realizing that the best means for attaining Christian citizenship is not to try to induce men
to vote and work in a certain way,
but extra efforts are being put forth
to induce men to go to the polls and vote. Party affiliation cuts little figure provided every elector casts his ballot for the candidate of his choice.
The great majority of voters are men of morality and good impulses, and
so long as all vote there is little danger of getting bad men in office. The danger is that line heretofore has
been that many men did not vote at all, and a minority with special interests to serve has always been able to elect their candidates and control
the government.

Now a new tack has been made.
Churches and civic bodies are hning their voters up and urging them to attend the suggestion meetings and
caucuses, and to vote at the primaries
and general election. No matter how or for whom they vote, the great and important thing is to vote.
in the elections and vote. If a voter is imbued with the true spirit of citizenship as the majority of them are,
he will select the best men of his party as the candidates of his choice.
When this is done there is no fear

Indifference has heretofore been the cause of all the political corruption
and misgovernment.

LABOR AND LIVING.

Coal cutting machines and coke
drawing and loading machines are
supplanting labor at the coke works,
and steam shovels and steam rollers
are doing the work of many men in building railroads and public highways, says the Connellsville Courier.

Time was when these would have been denounced as inventions of the devil, created for the purpose of taking the bread out of the mouths of the workingmen. In those days there was always more men than jobs; now
there is more employment than labor.
Then the laboring man received low
wages and enjoyed few comforts;
now he gets good wages and regards
as necessities what were a short time since luxuries.

This is his fortune, not his fault.
He is enjoying the general uplift in living conditions which we have ventured to denounce every now and then as the high cost of living.

This complaint is, however, not without reason. The conditions conspire to make high prices, but dealers frequently and arbitrarily raise prices to extortionate altitudes. These extortions are popularly blamed on
the various Food Trusts, and perhaps
with reason, but it remains a fact that extortion is practiced all the way down the line to the retail dealers.
It was recently discovered that Pittsburg retail dealers in green goods
were exceeding the tariff limit and
the wholesalers for a time published
their prices to show just how and where the public was being pinched.

It speaks much for the progress of our country that despite the introduction of labor-saving devices of every description the wages of labor have
steadily increased and the home comforts and advantages have constantly multiplied. That is the way it should
be. Steady prosperity is a blessing the advance that prompts extortion is a curse.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Sometimes one is tempted to wonder if conventions don't tend to add to the high cost of living.

Bryan admits that Roosevelt sees
what he did, but claims priority of claim, which is just like W. J.

A real reformer is an umpire who
is willing to turn a new leaf and manage a ball club.

The way to make sure of happy
memories is to marry them.

It usually happens that when a man buys a new hat his friends are as ready to tell him how to wear it
as though it were a gold medal.

Ed. Howe, the Atchison, Kan., philosopher suggests that every man ought to be settled as effectually as supremacy in baseball. Imagine Taft and Roosevelt playing it off.

So far as can be learned Congress
has accomplished this year the arduous task of investigating Lorimer,
listening to Lorimer's speech, seeing
to it that Lorimer's and hundreds of other speeches on Lorimer were put into the Congressional Record and reporting Lorimer's case satisfactory
to him. As a matter of rest some of them prepared a bill or two to spend their spare time fighting it over.

It was never known until the other
day why the cost of milk was so high.
Roosevelt is consuming such quantities of it that the supply is becoming limited.

Men with the worst memories, while
debtors have the best memories as creditors.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

A woman who was a recent visitor
in Charleroi told how the young son
of a friend qualified at boarding school. Jimmie which was the lad's name, was most popular at home, but
his first week at school found him too homesick to make friends.

"I'm way behind the other boys in everything," he wrote dolefully.
"Isn't only studies, but it's gymnasium and banjos and everything.
I don't believe they'll ever have much
use for me."
But the second letter, written after

a week in the new school, was quite different in tone.

"I'm all right," he wrote to his mother. "The boys say they'll teach me all they know, for they're proud to
half an inch wider than any other
boy in school, and my feet are the longest by a full inch. So you needn't worry about me any more."

"These advertisements of midsummer bargains that are beginning to appear in the papers reminds me of George Lusmden, a former pioneer
shoe dealer of Charleroi, who used to have some most original terms and
expressions," said a Charleroi business man. "Passing Lusmden's shoe store one day, where he was standing in the doorway, surrounded by
'bargain' trays of marked down shoes
I asked:

"How's business, George?"

"Good!" he exclaimed. "I got rid
of a pair of 'old crabs' today."

"Old crabs?" I asked. What are they?"

"Old stock—the 9's, 10's and 11's
of the styles of year before last and
the year before that and farther
back," he replied.

"But why do you call them crabs?"

"Oh, because they're such slow moving stuff."

SUNDAY SHINES ARE TABOOED

The Monessen Independent says:

"If you want a measure taken for a suit of clothes there will be no trouble experienced. The tailor shop is open.
If you want a load of groceries, a dish of ice cream, a cigar, an order of meat, a pair of shoes, or anything most that is necessary for the household, it is on the market Sunday as well as any other day. Those who like a wide open town have no hesitation in coming to Monessen on Sunday."

who has been visiting her parents, Mr.

ter's divine melody. A women's chorus number, "May Morning," by Denzi, and a male chorus number "Absence," by Dudley Buck will constitute a portion of the program. One of the finer numbers, it is expected though will be the noted Sextet from Lucia. Nearly everyone is familiar with this exquisite bit of melody and harmony, and many have heard it rendered by grand opera singers. Readings will fill out the program.

The two convention days, June 20 and 21, will be packed full of good things for Sunday School people. It is doubtful if all the delegates themselves will be on hand and registered on the first morning of the convention until the program is well under way. The first event that will attract public attention will be a children's parade on Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock.

Conferences will constitute the feature of the two days' session. All the various departments of Sunday School work as carried on by the county will have conferences and at least two will have banquets.

Tuberculosis Medicine Saved This Man's Life

Pneumonia is a serious disease, and often lays the foundation for chronic lung trouble—sometimes tuberculosis results. After pneumonia or any serious or stubborn cold, it is wise to take Eckman's Alternative.

Don't wait to find out whether the trouble is getting worse, but take Eckman's Alternative in time and avoid the dangers of disease. Read of the recovery in this case:

336 No. 41st St., Philadelphia, Pa. "Gentlemen, I am getting along very nicely and gaining strength all the time. I now weigh 154 pounds, a gain since September 15, 1907, of 28 pounds more than when I first started to take the Alternative. I wish I had known of it two years ago as it would have saved me much misery and distress."

"I was suffering from a very serious abscessed lung, which followed a bad attack of pneumonia. My physician and a specialist declared my case hopeless. I cannot but be very thankful to you and the Almighty God for the great blessing and change of health it has brought me."

"Since writing the above statement I wish to say that I have fully recovered my health, having been cured for over three years."

(Signed) ADOLPH THOS. REILLY. Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in rebuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet of cured cases and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists and

Church League Game Ends
With Score 8 to 1--Pollock
Pitches Well

Great bucketsful of cold water, were dashed on the Baptist hopes in a baseball way by the Methodists in a five inning engagement Monday evening. Pollock pitched for the splashes and as evidence that he did a good job of it the fact is that the Lindsay bats only gleamed four scattered safeties. Scheiler was box occupant for the all water delegation. The Methodists touched him right lively and made their hits count. As a result they edged a trifle nearer the lead in the pennant procession, while the Baptists walked backward.

HADES SHOWN AT ITS WORST

Old Fashioned Kind Shown
in Moving Pictures of
Dante's Inferno

Hell, the old-fashioned kind--where the worm dieth not and the fire is not quenched--such as our grandfathers used to believe in, and the kind that Billy Sunday preaches was most vividly shown at the Coyte Theatre yesterday afternoon and evening in the great motion picture films of "Dante's Inferno," which opened a three day's engagement. This wonderful masterpiece of the film maker's art pictures Dante's immortal poem in realistic, breathing effects, and shows Dante and Virgil on their journey through the infernal regions. The nine great circles of hell are depicted in all their hideousness, where the different degrees of sin are classified and punished in accordance with their heinousness. Beginning with the unbaptized, whose sin is something like Rudyard Kipling's man Tomlinson, who was not good enough to go to heaven, nor bad enough to go to hell, and whose punishment consists in basking under green trees outside of both paradise and limbo, the various circles of the infernal regions are unfolded to the travelers--Virgil and Dante--who are accorded a safe conduct throughout the infernal regions. After they are ferried across the river Styx by Charon, the grim boatman, the travelers view the tortures of the lost souls in all their different stages of the nine circles. The blasphemers, the lustful, the dissolute, the misers and spendthrifts, the murderers, the usurers, the simoners, all get the measure of punishment commensurate with their sin in pits of flame, lakes of fire, rivers of filth, or are the prey of monsters, or with endless and impossible tasks to perform. All is not hell-fire either. Some are packed in ice, and the frigid degree is imposed as well as the torrid one.

The films are a living personification of the work of the great artist Gustave Dore, whose pictures of Dante's Inferno have long been one of the art classics of the ages. The films are in five reels and the lecture that accompanies the presentation gives a most comprehensive understanding of the great masterpiece. They will be presented again this afternoon and evening, as well as tomorrow.
